

MOBILE OPEN SOURCE SOFTWARE

AN INTRODUCTION

DILPREET SINGH
ANDROID DEVELOPER CHALLENGE WINNER

We cordially invite you to attend a mini-workshop discussing open source development on the iPhone, Android and Openmoko platforms by some international speakers on the field. Dilpreet Singh is the CTO of Life360, an App that won a $275,000 reward from the Android developer challenge. Life360 allows users to use the web to manage everything related to their family's safety, security and communications in one place.
